Those who had no money gave wheat or barley; one man gave five knives, worth perhaps eleven cents here; perhaps I shall send them to America for sale. They want to send part of their money to Central Africa and part to Micronesia. May the Lord follow with his blessing their giving and their prayers! Central JCurket UHiwion. THE REVIVAL AT ADANA. Writing March 29, Mr. Mead gives further reports of the religious awakening at Adana. The interest in the meetings here, which are about to come to a close, reached its culmination last Sunday. On the previous day one of our brethren had been attacked in the market and beaten by ruffians of the Gregorian Church. The beating was not a very serious affair, but the whole city was pretty thoroughly awakened by it...
