Were Mama s Tears in Vain?

By Richard A. Byron-Cox

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Set in the Caribbean between 1900 and 1960, this book of stories is an exciting, engaging, suspense-filled and revealing biography of its characters. The reader empathizes with their pains, sorrows, ignorance and suffering, but ultimately joins them in the sunshine of triumph. The Dead Man Living with Us: -Tony is almost strangled to death in his sleep and wakes to the sound of invisible footsteps leaving his room. He is worried that there is something sinister about his home. His fears multiply when his mother makes a startling revelation. When Japheth met Lucifer: -Japheth terrorised his village to the point where he is recognised as champion bully. He shows no mercy for anyone, as he thought he would never need it from anyone. But that was until the night he met Lucifer. Sattou s pain and Mr. Penniston s burden: -Sattou spent thirty years searching the world for a family truth. He never suspected that it was in that man living on the opposite bank of the river, whose life he saved when aged seventeen. Charles, his cousin,...
