

HOMOSEXUALITY The True Lives of the Fabulous Men who preferred Men

By Michael Hone

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 116 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. The decision to write this book has its origin in a recent law in France, where I live, allowing gay marriage. Legally, I was suddenly worth any other guy in this wonderful land. I came down to earth pretty fast, though, due to the riots the law occasioned in Paris. There were also the rednecks on the quay where I have my boat (and where I'm writing this) who thought they and their sons were in dire danger the moment I ceased concealing my sexual orientation. I've never cared anything at all for American Marvel-Comics style superheroes for the simple reason that the world has been chockfull of real live heroes since recorded history. The Battles of Thermopylae and Marathon (all the heroes of which, as well soon see, preferred man-to-manboy friendships), the exploits of Richard Coeur de Lion and Alexander the Great (both wonderfully valiant men who chanced to prefer men too), as well as innumerable other men of courage, daring and genius are all infinitely more stirring than invented dudes who wear idiotic costumes and dodge bullets...
