RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 128 pages. LC Number: KF27 . W3443 2007h OCLC Number: (OCoLC)276301168 Subject: Foster children -- United States -- Social conditions. Excerpt: . . . 11 Chairman MCDERMOTT. You skipped over part of your history in that it is not all roses. Mr. CARDOZA. It is not. Chairman MCDERMOTT. To the extent you would be willing to talk about that, I think it would be useful for Members to hear what happens to somebody when they adopt kids. It is really about stories that make it so people understand what the issues are. Mr. CARDOZA. I would be very happy to tell our story. In fact, I have asked my children if it is okay with them to share their story. They understand that by telling their story, it may help other children, and they have asked me to do that. In fact, I shared with you earlier this year that they asked me to sponsor National Foster Care Month, and you graciously allowed me to take that bill to the floor, and thank you for that. The story of my children is this. They were living in a community in California. The children are of migrant farmworkers. The mother had mental health issues and correctional issues. She probably had suffered from some emotional issues that caused her to have these issues as I looked at the medical records that we got from the kids. They were placed in the care of a grandparent who had 12 children living in a one bedroom house. The grandmother was 80 years old. She could not take care of them, put them in foster care. They were removed from that home. They were in a second foster care family where they were...
