GAUTHIER 9 aimed at the other and to establish a hotline between 54 the two capitals ( June 1998 ). Implications for the United States Unarguably, based on recent developments in Chinese nuclear nonproliferation cooperation, the United States has much with which to be satisfied. As described above, in addition to Chinas more complete integration into the international nonproliferation regime, the number of bilat-eral United States - China agreements in this arena has been growing. Despite the progress, however, there remain a number of areas of friction and divergence between the United States and China. More to Do in Nonproliferation China is not a member of the Nuclear Suppliers Group and does not require full-scope safeguards in the destina-tion country as a precondition for Chinese nuclear ex-55 ports. There is also apprehension about Chinese sales of nuclear-related or destabilizing conventional arms to coun-tries with proliferation concerns. These include exports of such missiles and missile technology as the reported 56 transfers...
