When a heart is touched by the events of life, for example, romantic entanglements, those situations and words that twang the slender golden chords of one s heart; then if you are a poet (or even if not) it seems that writing poetry is a release, a form of written therapy, self expression which has to be employed. I call it my poetical diary. I gave up writing a diary years ago, mainly because of two reasons. One, to be so dedicated and disciplined to write an entry almost every day seemed just a bit too much. Two, some of my girlfriends actually tried to read my, so called, secret thoughts , which annoyed me greatly. In poetry I can keep a diary of sorts, without the fear of someone reading something I don t wish them to read. Within this work I have compiled all those poems that I considered fit into the category of the title; expressing, the romantic desires and longing that play the golden harp of the human heart; together with those circumstances which kindle the flame in the desperate heart of the helpless romantic; when everything is so intense. It appears almost inevitable that any poet worth his/her salt will eventually write poems reflecting the romantic; whether it be romance, love, yearning, desire, love spurned, unrequited love, or just the romance that fills life. Strangely enough when writing romantic poetry I find it easier to write about an imaginary person than a real one. The detachment from reality facilitates the illusion. Romantic poetry is not just about love and sex. Being a romantic person includes seeing the beauty...
